Tel.66-34-311278 Fax 66-34-311684

About the School

The Kings College is a boys' boarding modelled after the public schools of Europe. The school was founded more than 100 years ago with the conscious need to prepare boys for a life of leadership, service and personal fulfilment in the future.

This is the biggest boys' government boarding school in Thailand. There are currently 1600 students enrolled. They come from all parts of Thailand. Boys begin in the school in the early primary years at age 10 and continue until year 12 which they complete at age 18.

There are 120 teachers with 13 Thai staff in the English Department.

The school is organised into four houses. Students play many sports – including swimming in the school's own pool. Rugby is the main sport, with many students representing Thailand in international competitions.

The school requires a native speaker of English or non native speaker in the English Department.

The Location

Kings College is located in the town of Sampran, Nakonpathom Province. This province is on the outskirts of Bangkok. There is a good transport system into central Bangkok. There are plenty of good restaurants and extensive shopping nearby.
